Chardonnay Ried Gola 2017

Variety	Chardonnay
Region	Südsteiermark
Village	Kitzeck im Sausal
Single Vineyard	Gola

The name is of Slavian origin, meaning „naked“, which refers to the meagre slate soil. It is one of our hottest sites, producing profound wines with plenty of stuffing. Because of their slaty minerality, they stand out above all for their unique finesse, which makes them keep their elegance despite their high ripeness.

Soil	Red paleozoic slate

Inclination	40 to 67%
Vinification	Selective hand picked grapes, maceration time of 4 hours, gently very slowly pressed. Slow fermentation in stainless steel tanks and in used big wooden casks at temperatures around 20°C.
Alcohol	13,5 vol.%
Residual Sugar	Dry
Drinking Temperature	~ 12°C
Description	Ripe fruit, great interplay of ripeness and minerality, mineral driven body – elegant food partner
Food Pairings	Steamed tuna with sesame crust on sprout salad Sweet-and-sour shrimps
Contains sulfites
